Diwali festival celebrations, Httpool in India

At the end of October, our teams in India celebrated the festival of light. Ms. Ayushi Modi, Assistant Manager for HR, organised the celebrations which included a Diya decor competition and making of rangolis, as well as prizes for best-dressed female and male colleagues.

Work out of Work (WooW), Httpool in Slovenia

What about spending some time working out of work? The Slovenian team changed the foggy autumn Ljubljana for an office with a sea view for two days. By spending two days under the same roof, the team worked closely together and implemented a number of team building activities.
